COMPANY PROPOSALS

PROPOSAL 1– MAXIMUM NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

It is proposed, in accordance with Bye-law 98, that the company set the maximum number of Directors at seven.

PROPOSALS 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 AND 8 – ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board has nominated the seven persons listed below for election as Directors of the Company, all of whom are presently members of the Board of Directors.

A majority of the nominees are independent under the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") corporate governance listing standards. To be considered independent, a director must have no disqualifying relationships, as defined by the NYSE listing standards, and the Board must have affirmatively determined that he or she has no material relationships with the Company, either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of another organization that has a relationship with the Company. The Board, having reviewed and considered all relevant relationships between the Company and that each non-executive director, Mrs. Blankenship, Mr. Glass, Mr. Currie and Mr. Rabun, meets the independence standards for directors established by the NYSE listing standards and the Code, that each non-executive director who serves on the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board were also determined to meet the additional independence and qualitative criteria of the NYSE's listing standards applicable to directors serving on those committees. There are no family relationships among the director nominees or between any director nominee and any executive officer.

As provided in the Company's Bye-laws, each Director is elected at each annual general meeting of Shareholders and shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting following his or her election or until his or her successor is appointed. The Board strongly supports their re-election and recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the proposed resolutions at the AGM.
